1. Conventional requirements as to social behavior
2. Rules of acceptable conduct or behavior
3. Accepted code of manners used in ceremony or formal events
4. Code of ethical (moral) behavior

Why is Etiquette Important?

Here is a simple rule-of-thumb for behavior: Ask yourself what you want people to do for you, then grab the initiative and do it for them...
(Matthew 7:12)

You are fortunate if your behavior and your belief are coherent (consistent)
(Romans 14:22)

You shouldn't act as if everything is fine when a friend who claims to be a Christian is crooked, rude, greedy, or misbehaves...don't we have some responsibility for those who are within our Community of believers?
(1 Corinthians 5:9)

Your job is to speak out on things that make for solid doctrine...We don't want anyone looking down on God's Message because of their behavior...
(Titus 2:1)
